Illegal Harmonies. Music in the Modern Age

By Andrew Ford

The author charts the course of music in the concert hall and opera house over the last hundred years, linking it to developments in literature, theatre, cinema and the visual arts. This revised third edition, brings the story into the twenty-first century.

Andrew Ford born in 1957 in Liverpool, England is a composer, writer and broadcaster. He has taught music and composition at the University of Wollongong and completed a Doctorate. His works have been performed all over the world and currently he presents The Music Show on ABC Radio National.

Andrew Ford has written six music books, including The Sounds of Pictures in 2010.
