

Expression of Interest
Watermarks Open Studios September 19 and 20

Event: "Watermarks" is a weekend tour of open studios and homes exhibiting the work of artists living on Scotland Island and the Western foreshores of Pittwater.

Artists might include painters, photographers, printmakers, illustrators, sculptors, performance artists, musicians, poets, writers, filmmakers etc.

Listed open homes and studios display visual arts and might include artists' talks, live performance, demonstration, workshops and refreshments.

Studios and homes open between 10am – 4pm on September 19 and 20.

The general public will visit participating studios and homes with the help of a printed program and map. Open studios and homes on Scotland Island, Lovett Bay and Elvina Bay will be clearly signed.

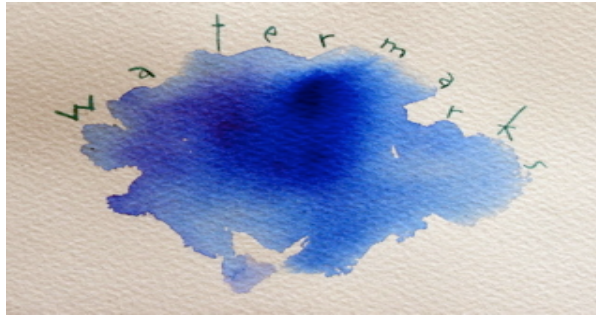

The event will be publicised in local and Sydney metropolitan papers and radio.

If you would like to be involved in this new cultural event on Pittwater please complete the form below and return by email, fax or post.
