

Snake Service

Last Sunday, we had cause to ring NSW Parks and Wildlife Service, to enquire as to the removal of a seven foot Diamond Python Snake, on our property.

We were given the number of Allen, who just happened to be lunching with his wife at Church Point, and several hours later he came over and bagged and removed the Snake for relocation.

