Royal Flying Doctor Service (RFDS)

The Royal Flying Doctor Service of Australia (RFDS) is one of the largest and most comprehensive aero-medical organisations in the world. It delivers extensive primary health care and 24-hour emergency service to those who live, work and travel throughout Australia.

When: Monday 19 May 2014
Where: Pelican Room
Mona Vale Library
Time: 2.30pm

The RFDS is a not-for-profit organisation. Today, the RFDS has a fleet of 60 aircraft operating from 21 bases located across the nation and provides medical assistance to over 270,000 people every year – that's one patient every two minutes in remote and rural Australia. Covering 90% of Australia - no patient is more than two hours away from the help of the Flying Doctor.
