My Brother's Eyes. The true story of surviving 16 years in a destructive cult

By David & John Ayliffe

This is one of the first Australian accounts of how a former local Palm Beach religious cult operated and is told through the eyes of two brothers: one on the inside, the other on the outside. David Ayliffe spent 16 years in the religious cult called the Zion Full Salvation Ministry. He was recruited in his late teens and didn't leave until his early 40s.

David Ayliffe gave up a promising career in journalism when he joined Zion. He eventually became the pastor when its leader died. He later closed Zion and went on to become CEO of an overseas aid organisation, a Bequest Office with Red Cross and is a Rotarian.

John Ayliffe is an author and ran a successful advertising company.
