The Scotland Island Rural Fire Brigade is starting a Community Fire Unit (CFU)

Frequently Asked Questions

What is a CFU?

The CFU is a group of people who are trained in basic fire safety and fighting and who can assist the Fire Brigade in case of fire emergencies and spot fires.

Do I have to train?

Yes, you will be trained in Bush Fire Survival Plans and Fire Danger Ratings, Bush Fire behaviour and CFU equipment and be assessed in Safety and Teamwork.

Will it cost a lot of my time?

No, the course and assessment will take one day. After that you will need to attend two 3 hour training sessions per year to keep your skills and knowledge fresh.

Do I get protective clothing?

Yes, you will be provided with Personal Protective Clothing and a uniform specific to the CFU.

Will you be a RFS member?

Yes, you will be a member of the Scotland Island Brigade, but you will not be required to maintain the level of training and attendance fully operational members are.

A box with CFU fire-fighting equipment has been placed near Bell Wharf
